PRODUCE AND EXPAND SENTENCES

We may produce a simple sentence with a subject and a predicate. We may add more details / additional information either to the subject part or to the predicate part. Sentences are expanded by adding words / phrases / clauses with connectives.

Examples:

1) Predicate expansion:

- I (who?)
- I go (your action)
- I go to school (where?)
- I go to school to study (why?)

2) Subject expansion:

- Parrot pecked a fruit
- The green parrot pecked a fruit (what color?)
- The green parrot with curved beak pecked a fruit (what type of beak?)

Use the hints and try to produce and expand the following. Write your answers in the space provided and check your answers. (Other similar answers are also valid).
