

Worksheet: C

Topic: Language practice

Name: _____ Class: 3 Section: _____

1- Underline the similes in each paragraph.

a. Saad ran like the wind. He was afraid the monkey would catch him. It was as cheeky as a fox and it wouldn't stop chasing him. Simon eventually found a cave and hid like a ghost in the night. Though he was tough as leather, he still wouldn't want to get caught by a meddling monkey.

b. Janie's house was on fire. She was stuck inside it was as hot as a sauna. Janie ran like a horse to escape the flames. The house fell like a bundle of bricks. Suddenly, the firefighters arrived on the scene. They were brave and immediately got busy as bees to put out the fire.

2. Use the following similes in your sentences.

a- As light as a feather

b- As gentle as a lamb

c- As happy as a lark

3. Insert an appropriate preposition in the blanks in the following sentences.

a- They arrived (on/in/by) Karachi at 8:00 p.m. (on/in/at) July 30.

b- Put the bag (under/at/above) your table and sit comfortably.

c- This story was written (by/for/from) Enid Blyton.

d- My aunt stayed at our house (for, since, between) two weeks.

4. Rewrite the story using the correct homophones. An example has been done for you.

One day a man went on a trip to the Maldives with his friends. On his way, there plane crashed on an island. While sitting under the son, he thought about his family. He missed his deer sun and wife. He new he had to get back to them. His sell phone had crashed two. He sat their for ours and weightied. He eight berries and drank rainwater. At knight, he couldn't sleep. Suddenly he saw a boat sale bye in the see. He waved two get there attention. The captain spotted him and rescued him.

One day a man went on a trip to the Maldives with his friends. On his way, their plane crashed on an island. While _____

5- Identify the type of sentences given below:

- a- 'Alas, we lost the game!' Danish said. _____
- b- Are you going to the supermarket? _____
- c- Have you finished the work? _____
- d- I have decided to settle in Canada. _____
- e- Oh, what a wonderful surprise! _____

6- Write ONE sentence of each of the following:

- a- Question sentence: _____
- b- Statement sentence: _____
- c- Exclamatory sentence: _____

7- Complete the following conditional sentences.

- a- I _____ (stay) at home, if it rains this afternoon.
- b- If my brother _____ (go) abroad, I will be very worried.
- c- If she studies hard, she _____ (pass) the exam.
- d- Sam _____ (be) so happy when he finds the money he lost.